

Please do not do anything to diminish the telephone privacy laws. I am so hopeful that IL will adopt a stance like IN. The solicitation calls are a nuisance for sure; what is worse is the way a majority of the callers treat the person when they say they are not interested. Let the states make these decisions. Not for Fed. Gov.